

2020-2022 Board Nominee Profiles

*Shanti Gidwani is a Healthcare Business Leader with a diverse international clinical background and 20+ years experience. In her early professional life, Shanti was also an HIV/AIDS Nurse.

* Stéphanie Morin lives in Québec City. She has been involved with MIELS-Quebec, a community-based HIV organization based in Québec City, for the last 20 years.

*Shaun Proulx is a Toronto-based media personality, speaker and coach whose current endeavours include hosting the weekly talk show The Shaun Proulx Show, heard weekends across North America on SiriusXM, and publishing Canada's longest-running LGBT digital platform, TheGayGuideNetwork.com.

*Gayle Restall is an Associate Professor in the Department of Occupational Therapy at the University of Manitoba who lives and works on Treaty 1 territory. She is a registered occupational therapist and has a PhD in Community Health Sciences from the University of Manitoba. Gayle is a teacher, mentor and researcher: and

*Daniel Sands is a proud gay and proud 2 Spirit friend who uses they/them/their pronouns. As a grandchild of a Cree Metis residential school survivor, their spirit is indomitable. Daniel has survived and continues to thrive in spite of having challenges of being bullied, mental wellness, poverty and homelessness, 28 years of substance use, cancer, and living with HIV.